Dear Taekwondo Colleague

The UK Taekwondo development council cordially invite you and your students to this our 2nd class 3 corner judge and referee hand signal seminar.

The seminar will be presented by Master Keith Evans 6th Dan , WTF International referee, Master Evans is one of the UKs highest profiled International referees in the UK and has refereed at several World championships, Keith has just returned from China with the new updated Kyorougi competition rules

Master Evans is also the refereeing director for the ITU and is a Kukkiwon qualified International Instructor.

This is a unique opportunity to attain this certificated qualification and is a first step for those wishing to officiate at National or International level.

The course shall be split into 2 sections with the morning session being a practical session covering the WTF hand signals for centre refereeing,

Following a break for lunch the afternoon shall be theoretical covering the WTF rules for Kyorougi competition.

Please bring Dobok, and writing utensils

Successful candidates shall be awarded class 3 status and shall be eligible to sit the next available class 2 course

Please send personal details, and cheque (made payable to UKTD) to UKTDC events, C/O; 6 Crossfield Rd, Skelmersdale, Lancs, WN8 9NQ

Regards

Master Keith Evans, referee co-ordinator UKTDC
